

Skills required to write projects

The purpose of the training:

The aim of the training is to inform participants about the international writing standards for writing, to promote the necessary skills that are necessary for writing effective projects.

Target group:

- For the general public, including young specialists and students. მოსალოდნელი results:

In accordance with the specific project objectives:

- Be able to define the problem and develop goals and objectives of the project;
- Determine the volume of the project and will actually plan the project process;
- Understand international standards of project application;
- Develop basic projects, methods and activities to implement projects;
- Develop stability and dissemination strategy of the project;
- Determine the risks associated with the implementation of the project and elaborate mechanisms for avoiding them;
- Be able to draft a project budget;
- Implementation of an effective project management system;
- Determination of project monitoring and assessment instruments and methods.

The training will be conducted in the form of discussion. Students are provided with questions and additional material for practical exercises.

Trainer: Feridun Keskin

Training capacity:

24 hours