

Structural unit	International relations service
Basic functions of the service	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Coordination of the international strategies and supportive services- working out of internationalization strategies according to the general strategies of the university, cooperation with the structural units, monitoring of appropriate activities; • Supporting of university integration in the international educational space and increasing of university recognition on the international level- establishing and development of connections with the foreign higher educational institutes, research institutes, scientific centers and tech-parks; joining the university in the international association and networks and increasing of university role; relationship with the diplomatic missions accredited in Georgia, international donor organizations; • Recruiting and support of the foreign students- cooperation with the foreign agents, organizing of culture integration events, supporting to the international students during the teaching period; • Supporting of international mobility of academic and administrative staff and students, coordination of exchange programs; informational and consulting services; offering different types of supportive services; • Supporting of internationalization process in the university- close cooperation with the university faculties and administrative units for the purpose of internationalization, implementing united or double quality programs with the cooperation of international partners, receiving of international accreditation of the programs; • Supporting of research internationalization-supporting the agreements of the personnel oriented on the research and project development; informing the university personnel concerning the international research grants and scholarships; supporting the arranging the foreign researchers visits; hosting/organizing the international scientific conferences in the university; • Creating of multicultural and varied environment in the university-arranging the meetings of international values, public lectures, workshops and other research and educational events; developing/implementing of international projects.