

Structural unit	Security service
Basic functions of the service	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Protection of the buildings, plants, central heating system, material-technical equipment, including firefighting inventory and material assets of the teaching university; b) Compliance with the firefighting rules on the territories under the ownership of the teaching university. Working out of firefighting measurements for improving the fires safety, (envisaging the periodic renovation of the inventory and technical means); c) Taking the necessary measures and control in relation to the violation of the prohibitions envisaged by the internal regulations established on the territories of the teaching university; d) Prevention of emergency situations and response to them (working out of objective programs for ensuring the safety of the teaching university territory and the bodies being there); e) Implementation of fire safety organizational events (working out of firefighting measurements, including organizing of survey of the fires taking place on the territory under the ownership of the teaching university; ensuring of fire evasion and firefighting security systems; teaching the firefighting safety to the employees for the purpose of their readiness in case of fires); f) Taking care of the territories, buildings and warehouses under the ownership of the teaching university, ensuring the existence and functionality of the evacuation roads and exits, individual and group means of saving; g) Accounting of the information concerning the fire hazard indicates of the documentations related to the materials, substances, products and machinery existing in the teaching university and during using, supervising the fire safety requirements; h) Security control on the order of the events holding in the teaching university; i) Monitoring of functionality of the security means of technic (video surveillance and alarms); j) Ensuring the permanent functionality of the firefighting inventory (fire tapes, fire extinguishers and other firefighting means); k) Supervising the rule of smoking in the teaching university buildings; l) Carrying out of other functions envisaged by the applicable law and legal acts of the managing bodies of the teaching university.